

Sometimes Parenting is Hard

Too many problems and not enough support can make it hard for any one of us to be as patient and giving with our children as we'd like to be...

Hadih Community House Parent Support Circle at 2105 Pine St, Prince George, BC V2L 2E1

At Parent Support Circles, parents talk about how they are feeling about their children and themselves. They find understanding, support, and encouragement to be the parents they want to be.

Hadih Parent Support Circle:

- Every 2nd Tuesday from 1-2:00
- Free
- Transportation assistance offered
- Open to all parents
- Join any time
- Facilitated by Trained Volunteers
- Confidential
- Child-minding & snacks available

Prince George Parent Testimonials:

- "The group is a safe environment in which frustrations and anger can be safely vented so it is not taken out on our children."
- "I have learned some ways to be a good parent and not neglect small problems that may turn out to be bigger problems."
- "Circle is the only place I can go to express my struggles and feel understood ... group is the most important support I have during my week."
