Grandparents Raising Grandchildren/Kinship BC Facebook Group Celebrates 10 years!

Our Grandparents Raising Grandchildren/Kinship BC Facebook group is celebrating its 10th anniversary! For a decade, kinship caregivers across BC have turned to this community to ask questions, share experiences, find resources, and connect with others who understand the unique journey of raising a family member's child.

Whether you've been part of the group for years or are just discovering it, there's a place for you here.

Not a member yet? Consider joining and connecting with your kinship community!

Join a kinship care peer support group

Parenting support groups are free, anonymous and confidential self-help groups providing kinship caregivers with a safe space to share their stories, build communities, learn new parenting skills, receive emotional support and discover new services and resources.

Currently Parent Support Services Society of BC has 3 online Kinship Care Support Groups: Monday 10:00am / Tuesday 7:30pm / Thursday 10:00am

Complete an application form to join or call the Kinship Care Help Line to support you with registration 1-855-474-9777.

Reach out to Cassandra and Christina on the Kinship Care Help Line

We support and advocate for kinship care families across BC!

Advocate-social workers, Cassandra and Christina, have expertise in child welfare and the child protection system and can help you navigate complex service systems such as the Ministry of Children and Family Development; overcome information barriers to find the answers, assistance and resources needed to prevent and solve problems and help you identify benefits and services that will support the whole family.
